

UNION PACIFIC BIG BOY 4014 COAST TO COAST TOUR

City of Altoona (Downtown) (Pass Through) (No Stop) Saturday, July 11 – approximately 8:45 a.m.

The Big Boy is expected to pass through Downtown at approximately 8:45 a.m. on its journey to the Horseshoe Curve (Ticketed Event-Sold Out).

Viewing Locations

Bridges (pedestrian and motor vehicle) between the Norfolk Southern location at the Rose Yard and the 24½ Street Bridge

This is not a Whistle Stop

Pedestrian bridges open 6 a.m. until dusk.

Business hours Downtown vary, with some retailers offering earlier hours on this particular morning and special events – a full list can be found at www.DowntownAltoona.com. (Will be updated closer to the event.)

Some restaurants will offer earlier hours and brunch menus.

Guests returning to the Railroaders Memorial Museum on the shuttles from the ticketed Horseshoe Curve event are invited to head Downtown upon their return.

Websites

www.DowntownAltoona.com

www.altoonapa.gov

The 10th Ave. Expressway will not allow stopping or standing

Parking

On-street parking in marked areas

Parking Garage at the Patrick M. Miller Transportation Center, 1225 11th Avenue, Altoona

Public parking lots with no time limits on weekends

No Parking

Private property

Private lots, unless otherwise marked

No Tickets Required

No Road closures

We welcome visitors to enjoy Downtown Altoona for the entire day! Our shops, restaurants, museums, and attractions will be open and many will be offering themed specials and activities for Big Boy visitors, including those shuttling back from the ticketed Horseshoe Curve event.

Shops and restaurants offering extended hours

Pop-up shops and fun, themed events

Special exhibit at Southern Alleghenies Museum of Art

Find a full list on DowntownAltoona.com (to be updated closer to the event date)

Restrooms

Permanent restrooms will be open and additional Port-a-Johns in Heritage Plaza